To the Class of 2007:

When you look up the definition of picture, you find it defined as "a visual representation of a person, object, or scene produced on a surface." Yet it means so much more than that. Throughout the years, the technology used to take a picture has developed. From disposable cameras to picture phones and everything in between, our generation has had the luxury of taking pictures and capturing memories for every occasion. We, the class of 2007, have endured many experiences in our lives since the entry of kindergarten. Our high school years while short in the realm of life, can be seen as some of the best and our pictures will always be there to help us remember them. On the first day of freshman year, our worried faces were priceless as we questioned our high school survival. That year passed and summer arrived quickly. The arrival of school after that first summer will always be remembered as a sea of black and dark purple hair enclosing the halls, as Ashlee Simpson was our latest trendsetter. As we aged into sophomores, rather than awaiting our sixteenth birthdays, we anticipated six months after receiving our licenses; the day we would become "official drivers". Junior year approached, and we were finally upperclassmen, understanding that we held an important place in the school. The Aquaturf played host to prom as we all experienced that 'Magic Moment' (or 'Majic' rather) together. We always knew our class was the largest, but this became apparent to the whole school as we had the distinct pleasure of seeing teachers on carts rolling from class to class. In a 'flash', Senior year came out of nowhere, and we knew that this was our year. Our class brought back the spirited Powderpuff game, complete with a Senior vs. Junior showdown. The Senior girls shone in the Friday night lights and were crowned champions. With the "Sport your Spirit" Homecoming dance, the Homecoming Court returned. The multiple flashes from cameras were numerous through all of these events, capturing the amazing times we had. So now is the time to cherish these moments, for they are the simple things that made our class worth waiting for. While all of the memories in our minds have shown us how much fun we've had these past four years, we can embrace them more, as a picture's worth 2007 words.

2007 Yearbook Dedication:
Ms. Mawhinney

Theresa Mawhinney was born on June 28 in Jersey City, New Jersey not knowing that she would help shape the lives of so many students through her teaching. During her childhood she moved and spent most of her time in Windsor Locks, Connecticut. In Windsor Locks, she created memories that she would look back on now. She was very close with her neighbors and still remains even closer with her sisters. Her father played a major role in her life by influencing her to become active in literature. Ms. Mawhinney attended the North Street Elementary School, Windsor Locks Middle School and finally graduated from Windsor Locks High School with the Class of '94. In high school, she was a gleaming part of the show choir and was a successful student. After high school she attended the University of Connecticut where she received a Bachelors Degree in English. She then continued to receive a Master's degree in library science at Simmons College. After graduation, she began her adventurous and outstanding career as an English teacher, here, at South Windsor High. She left, looking for a change of venue, and joined Conard High School for a period of time. Then her journey brought her back to South Windsor where she has continued teaching. She has been a great addition to the South Windsor community for a total of seven years.

Ms. Mawhinney is a remarkable teacher. She teaches her students not only how to read Shakespeare but the life lessons that will prepare them for reality. She loves discussing the power and significance of literature with them but more importantly is always there for her students to discuss matters outside of learning. Forming friendly relationships with colleagues and students can be seen as a very likeable trait of Ms. Mawhinney's. Her goals are to set high standards not just for her students, but for herself as well. She has what any student would want in a teacher; she has the ability to make reading and writing fun and she creates an interesting way of interpreting the english language. Students at South Windsor High School are very happy to have her help them reach their potential. Ms. Mawhinney is an advisor for the senior class and is in charge of the Senior Executive Board with Mrs. Mazzonna. Besides working nine to five, her spare time hobbies include taking care of her beagle, Scout. And, yes, as the stereotype of an English teacher, she also loves to read. Going to the movies and doing Sudoku puzzles are other hobbies that she enjoys.

Ms. Mawhinney, you have so much ahead of you and with that, we, the class of 2007, would like to thank you for the memories and say:

we dedicate our yearbook to you.

In Loving Memory of Sherry Amico

"Her laugh could light up a room."

-Tamara Newmarker

"She had an amazing voice and a crazy personality."

-Lizz Burnham

Sherry Amico was only at South Windsor High School for a short amount of time but she still affected many people around her. She was an exuberant, smart, and funny girl as well as an amazing friend. Her memory remains in the hearts of her friends and family, continuing to make people smile and laugh every time they remember her. Sherry was a kind girl. She cared dearly about her friends and went out of her way to bring light into their lives. Music was another one of Sherry's passions. She was a very talented singer and guitarist. Her friends will forever fondly remember her singing down the hallways, outside of the cafeteria and in the chorus room. In her friends' eyes, the radio versions of songs like "Wonder Wall" and "Collide" will never do them justice, as Sherry's voice still sings softly in the backs of their minds. With the memory of Sherry in our hearts, we will constantly be reminded that life is for the living and we should spend each day living life to the fullest.

"She had a love for music like no other."

-Jackie Lipson

In Loving Memory of Devin DeRosia

"Life is short, ride hard."
-Sean Fregeau

"Devin was a sweet young man. He will be missed by everyone and will never be forgotten."
-Mrs. Cuscovitch

Devin DeRosia was a fun, outgoing, and kind person. He loved his friends and family deeply. He also loved motocross, hockey and his 1990 mustang. Devin was always having a good time and enjoying life with his friends and girlfriend, Maurissa Fogel. His passion and ambition in his riding will never be forgotten. Everyone around him envied his talent. Devin was a great person and just an overall fun person to be around. We will all miss seeing his friendly face. His memory will live on with all of us when we recall times we've spent with him. Devin's parents and brother Dillion, truly appreciate all the support from Devin's friends and the donations towards rebuilding his mustang. Devin would be proud to see everyone coming together and getting something so important to him accomplished. His memory will live on with us forever.

The South Windsor Girls Soccer Team had another successful season this year. Lead by the four seniors Lauren Keilich, Cara Momnie, Brittany Collins, and Laura Wyatt, the Bobcats brought home their 6th consecutive CCC East Conference title. They advanced to the quarterfinals in the state tournament and suffered a tough loss to number one ranked Amity High School 1-0 in overtime. But as Coach Mel said, "They played their last game with no regrets. We'll definitely miss the seniors and their leadership." The Bobcats have many returning players and are expected to do well next year.

[Varsity]

The boys varsity soccer team had a successful season this year. They had a victory over powerhouse E.O. Smith for the second time in school history. It was a confidence booster for the team. Unfortunately our team fell short of the conference title. Advancing to states, they suffered a heart-breaking loss to Masuk. Six players were all conference selections. Seniors Jared Spieker, Mike Schell, Denis Cannon, Ben Glassman and Joe Kessler were standouts this year along with juniors Kedzie Teller and Alex Danaïs. After losing ten seniors last year, the team faced a re-building year. The eight seniors that are leaving will be missed. The remaining team is looking forward to next season.

[Varsity/JV]

After losing seven seniors from last year's season, most people thought that this year was going to be a re-building year. Turning many people's heads, South Windsor Field Hockey was a team to look out for. Coming out strong, the Field Hockey team had nine wins overall. The Lady Bobcats made their presence known after repeatedly kicking the top teams out of the number two spot, and came out 8th in the State. The girls were able to secure the CCC East Championship with a tie against Windsor, the first Championship since 2001. The girls ended their season with a hard loss against Simsbury losing 3-1 in strokes. Keep it up ladies!

The Lady Bobcats had a very successful season. Having lost nine key seniors last year, the girls knew they had some big shoes to fill. The team stepped up to the challenging schedule and placed 10th in the state tournament and 2nd in the CCC East Tournament by the end of the season. There were five all conference runners: Katie Beam, Erica Forzley, Christy Burke, Natalie Turek and Lisa Sander. The team graduates four seniors this season, but the strong class coming up looks to bring another rewarding season for the Lady Bobcats.

The Lady Bobcats had an amazing season this year. Not only did they win the CCC East Championship title for the fourth year in a row, but they made it into the State Tournament ranked number four. They finished their season advancing to the Semi-finals in the State Tournament. The Bobcats are losing nine seniors this year. The 2007 season looks to be a re-building year, but with a strong junior class coming up, the Bobcats hope to keep the CCC East Championship title for another year.

"I can't believe we made it," "These four years went by so fast," "Where do I even begin?" Ok, let's be honest... I can believe we made it, these four years often felt like FOREVER, and I know exactly where to begin - by thanking the people who have shaped me into who I am today. Thanks to my family-Mom, Dad, and Garrett. No matter what our life circumstances have been, and where we have all been located, we have remained so close. Thanks to my friends-you don't need me to tell you who you are. I'm so fortunate to have so many different groups of friends that I can count on. I would also like to thank those of you who aren't my friends and perhaps don't like me at all. You are the ones that challenge me and don't allow me to settle. You force me to question myself and push me to become a better person. So thanks and congratulations to the Class of '007.

Jon Adamec

These past four years have been so long. I'm so glad it's over and I can finally leave this place and go to college. Though these past four years have been awesome and I'm going to miss everyone. Football, lacrosse, lock out with Jimmy, Nieves, Giddleman, and everyone else, fun times out of school. I'll definitely miss football and playing Rockville and I'll never forget the Hartford Pub game, 28-27, who knew that kid could kick a 52 yd field goal. I want to thank all my friends Andy, Matt, Mike, Jake, Cameron, Jimbo and just so many people. I would also like to thank my family especially my dad for helping me get through football. From parties to prom, there's so many memories and I'll miss everyone, and JB Mack, Jachym and Jared, keep your heads on a God dang swivel next season.

"This is the end, beautiful friend" to quote the late Jim Morrison. I have finally reached the end of my high school career. I had many memorable experiences, such as snowboarding with Ryan and Bruno, boating with Tim, Dan, and Josh, but nothing will match up to The Who concert. Dan and I started an encore and clapping chant, Pete smashed three guitars, and they rocked the house. Every song sound better when a geriatric sings it through an amp cranked to eleven. Now I sit here wondering what the future beholds, and if I will ever see The Who again, also if I can annoy Raccio any more. These were definitely the best years of my life, even if the best day of those best years was the only good one that I will remember. Now it is off, to college and the real world. Go Gators!!

These past four years have gone by too fast. Christina, Caylie, Breanna, Erin, Mary, and Ashley, My Seven Seductive Seniors. Christina, my partner in crime, we've been through it all since the play ground. You're my best friend because our mothers couldn't handle us as sisters. There was always those late nights and laughing until we couldn't breathe that I will never forget. Nothing can tear us apart. Jonathan what can I say our long Dr. Phil talks in the library and almost getting caught out. Tommy, you taught me the true meaning of love and you will forever be in my heart. Mom, Dad, and Melissa, you're the greatest family anyone could ask for and I couldn't have done this without you. It's finally over. SWHS- Live it up and enjoy the ride. Peace out.

To everyone who has helped me grow and learn: my family, friends and teachers, I cannot possibly thank you enough. I love you down to my nerds, runners, orch dorks and frenchies. To my friends for our little excursions of running and shopping (simultaneously), Friday night and study parties, sleepovers, bowling, summer runs, nicknames that I may never outgrow (Crispy Chicken), and of course prom (amazing x2) Thank you for always being willing to laugh until our lungs hurt, always being there for me, listening to my problems when I had them and sharing in the joy of my accomplishments. Thank you for being a part of my life that I will miss more than words can express. Never forget the days of Italian spices, Christmas carols in the hallways, calling the teacher for help studying, using large words. Love to the Class of '007 (Bond Baby)

Wow! It's hard to believe that these four years are coming to an end. I can't say that this time has been perfect or easy, but I can say that it has been memorable and life-changing. I have grown in so many ways-as a friend, a thinker, and as an individual. As the end of high school draws nearer, I feel such gratitude and respect for the people around me. Thanks to my teachers; I know your job is not easy and I respect what you do. Thanks to my family—Mom, Dad, Alanna, and Michael—for being so supportive and helpful. And of course, thanks to all of my friends for making it what it was; there's not enough space to list everybody without leaving anybody out, so I'll trust that you know who you are. Love and thanks! Although we're branching out now, it's only the beginning, and I know you'll be with me both literally and figuratively in the years to come.

I can't believe we're finally going off to college. These past four years were nothing short of unforgettable. You two are my best friends and I love you no matter what. Chel, thank you for always being there through thick and thin; I'll never forget the summer of 2005. Anna, Alysa, Nikki, Amanda and Bree...you girls are amazing. I also want to thank my mom, dad and sister for never letting me do this alone. I love you more than anything in the world. Good luck class of 2007; our lives are just beginning.

Dan DiMugno

High school has been amazing because of my wonderful friends and family and all the great times we've had together. Poker with Greg and Pelan. Bus and car rides with Ashley. Badminton with Rob. Suffering through 3 years of English with Christina. Prom with Julianne. Tennis with Mike while chatting verbosely. Trumpeting with Gordon, Erin, and Britt. Relay for Life with Elise thanks to Mrs. Babiec. Laughing hysterically while Evan does something more audacious than anyone else would dare to do. Mocking and complaining about teachers with Susan. Annual end of the year and Halloween parties. And I would never have been able to make it through these past four years without my incredible parents and my sister Laura. Thanks guys, you've made my high school experience one I'll never forget.

Michael DiStefano

Where can I begin? Movie-making as freshmen was sick (winner's of the coveted pomegranate juice)! Chem. was quite the "sophomoric" experience and Pennel's class was undoubtedly epic—Joe, Pelan, and Chris Kim (if you ever read this), it can't be forgotten. Junior year was intense—Gov. midterm mishaps, double Bio with Mrs. Babiec, Prom with everyone, and unforgettable study halls (Julie and Rachel, great times). The countless weekend nights hanging out with everyone (bonfires and swimming) were equally perfect. Joe, the movies (and occasional tennis matches) are always crazy—road trip with Pelan! And Susan, I can never forget everything that we've done together! To my family: Thank you for everything! To everyone: The memories don't end here...there are still many more great years to come. "Good luck, we're all counting on you."

Erik Donofrio

There are just too many reasons why high school was a blast. Most of the credit has to go to my awesome friends who have always known how to make me smile. I loved obsessing with Jackie, eating Prego with the drifters and the gang (you know who you are), Meg's creation of my cookie cult, randomness with Liz, hanging out on the bus with Scott, recorder with my deck-the-halls seniors, Broadway bus rides, Anarchy Days, in the back with the journalism IIs, finals with Muldoon, the fabulous Luddy and Hilton parties, Prom fun, NY and the Big piano, procrastinating until the very last minute, and general debauchery with all of my friends. I love my friends and everything that made high school—well, high school.

Laura Drag

La, Obi-Wan

The high school days have finally come to an end and I'm going to miss those crazy, funny, amazing moments that came with it. Now, who to thank? Megan & Liz: thanks for the morning chats. Chrisanthi & Cheslea: thanks for hilarious health classes. "Kyla" & Ashley: Thanks for DRIFTERS and bolding everything. Scott: Thanks for not taking any of my "crap". Most importantly, thank you Jen and Sara. I couldn't have made it through everything without all our shenanigans like snow boarding in 70 degree weather, Denny's, Friday nights in the Sixx, double dash marathons, beach trips, zoo adventures, homemade lemonade, and so much more! You're my favorite Dino Adults. Finally, I'd like to thank my family for always being there. Andrea, I hope this school treats you as well as it has me these past years. We had a good run SWHS! First and foremost, to my family, thank you for coming to all of my plays and concerts. Thanks for schlepping me to competitions and for paying obscene amounts of money for fake hair and sparkles. To all of my friends, thanks for laughing at my jokes. Thanks for letting me sing ALL the time and for giving me the self-confidence I have today. To the drama kids, all I can say is: How now my love(s)? To my Coogan girls, you are the best friends a girl could ask for. For some, high school is all about books, tests, and grades; however it's also about friends, experiences, and memories. I won't remember the tests I took, the books I read, or the grades I got but I will remember the people I met. Let the good times roll: Seniors- Live fast blow hard die young- Allie, Fitz, Kristine, Jordan, Kristin, Elyse, Maya, Justin, Rob. Bonfires, movie nights, water balloon duels, PAPATuesday, snowboarding, beach trips, concerts, parties, prom '05-JB, '06-RM, E.E.H.C. Never forget the Broken Dreams Crew. Environight. Dodge ball. 12:22, 7:41, 22. Thanks mom and the rest of my family for being there. Love ya. Guidance has been my second home—more time spent in that office than in class. Mys and Stone thank you so much for everything you have done for me and also Kristin, Erin, and of course my big sister Danielle. What happens in guidance stays in guidance-Kevin, Jerry, Sophia, Matt. What do you want to be when you grow up?

Stephanie Ferreira

These four years have suddenly come to an end. I have made friends that will never be forgotten, and memories that will stay with me forever. I am not listing every memory I have because they wouldn't fit, what matters is that they stay in my heart forever. Through out these four years I have learned something very important. Life isn't about finding your self, but it's about creating yourself. I met someone at this school who has made this experience so much stronger, Jared I love you and I know this isn't the end. All my girls you know who you are I love you, and for those of you left behind live it up. All my boys you know who you are thank you for always being by my side. Mom, dad, and Liz I couldn't have made it through without you. It was good while it lasted, but it's my time to say goodbye.

I had great friends to keep me occupied during these four years, and I probably wouldn't have had too great of a high school life without them. ## Alexandria Kebalo

It's been a crazy, spontaneous and fun, yet retched and obviously educational past four years. Although there are hundreds of words to describe my high school career, there's one word that stands on it's own: unforgettable. I've had an unforgettable past four years, filled with unforgettable memories and friendships that I'm sure will last a lifetime. I know I couldn't have made it if it wasn't for an important few; Monica, Amy, Rachna and Sammy, you girls have been there for me since day one, and I'm sure we'll stay in each other's lives. Mama and Tato, thanks for supporting and understanding me, you both are great influences. As for my sister and brother, Victoria and Andrew, you have big shoes to fill, no but seriously guys enjoy these four years, it's amazing how time slips away. Take care, peace, love, rock n roll.

Life is only as good as the memories we make and the friends we share them with. – To all my amazing friends, super-dee-duper seniors, and teammates, these four years have been awesome. Bobcat Soccer seniors (and Mickey), pride/goals, National Anthem, and hair extensions. To my indoor and outdoor track buddies - Andy, Christi- bothering Chow, Distance, popsicle runs, state open '06 4x400. La Vida De Artista was the best movie ever made. Autumn and Shannon: photography, studio, "arguments" and WTP. Sara: DDR parties! "Milked/ Stevie," sign language, track slackers, sponge buddy Dana, Frenchies, prom, and to all of our Friday night parties, thank you for all of the amazing memories and times. To my family and friends, you guys have made high school unforgettable. I love you all and good luck.

Joe Kessler

If I sat here and tried to explain how I felt about leaving the High School, I might run out of space – or time – or coffee. So I have a quick message for some people that were important to me. Mike, Jon-Jacques, JMal, Rachel, Balbert, Caitlin, Chriskim, Kerri, Grant, Jack, and Ara – you guys made some stuff memorable – nothing comes to mind at the moment ... but I know it must be in there somewhere. In all seriousness though, I'll miss you guys. Ashlee, I don't know what I would have done this year without you ... thank you so much. At the end of all this, I will have left a lot unsaid and even more undone, but my hope is that you will read this one time and never again – because at this point, looking forward is more important than dwelling in the past. Good luck to everyone.

Christopher Kramer

Chris, Kramer

It's hard to believe that high school went by so fast and I can hardly believe that I survived some of those classes. It's been a great four years and I will never forget the amazing memories; Dodgeball, Spectrum competitions (Virginia Beach!), those very odd study hall discussions (I'm sure we covered it all), Physics class (McAndrew, you made it great), and how can I forget, Español! Going down to the gym to workout or play some racquetball or basketball, Greg and Colin I will win. How was Yoga class? Of course I have to thank all of the people who helped me along the way, my family, friends, and mentors who were there when I needed help. I couldn't have done it without you all. Zack, the snatch lives on! I'll never forget all the great times or the crazy discussions we had. It's been fun! Thank you all!

Jen Kranz

These past four years have been indescribable to say the least, and although I hate to admit it, I've learned a lot. I've learned who my real friends are, and who's just been lying all these years. I leave this school to my freshman Andrea. High school only lasts so long. Enjoy every moment of it while you can. And to all my juniors going to be seniors, you better rule that school next year! To all my friends, stay in contact we must because we've shared so much, such as the Ratcliffe/Wiggins ordeal. Meeko and Thomas-I love you both to the end of the earth-but no further! Well, it's been fun, South Windsor, but all good things must come to a close, and so class of double O 7, we leave this all behind. Oh and Kyla, drifters, man, drifters.

Monica Kuczynski

These four years flew by so quickly with unforgettable memories. Dancing at Bonnie Hayes, Working at Barker Steel, DMB, Prom 06, Homecoming, Snowball, DMB, Boston, Maine, Blu, Sweet 16, Foxwoods, Beach, Halloween, Bonfires, and many more. Through these four years some friends were lost, new ones made, old ones kept, a part of you all will always be with me. Alexa, Sammy, Kelli and Alicia thanks for making these four years unforgettable. To the rest thanks for everything! Before the next journey begins I would like to thank God for leading me on to the right path in life and helping me out whenever there was a conflict in my life. To my family: Mom and Dad you molded me into what I am today. Thanks for looking over my shoulder and supporting me. Pete and Tom thanks for being there and looking out for me. I love you all! It's time to continue on to the next step in life but I'll never forget my times here at SWHS.

Stacey Kujawa

The past four years have been extremely long and have seemed to take forever, but now that they're almost over, I wish they wouldn't end. Ali, we've known each other for years, and this year I feel like we couldn't get closer. Between the giggling, "free" signs", bebe, track, and our after school adventures, it seems like the laughs never seem to end. Sarah, you are ridiculous. We've had much too many ups and downs, but I love that we've remained close. Bebes and Kitties, random drives.. then getting lost and the youth mission trips (Mardi Gras will be amazing), you know you'll forever be my Captain Smelly. And Lucy (Lucian) I'm so glad we met sophomore year with Mrs. Moberly's large button. Bowling has definitely grown to be apart of my life now too. And with that, I love you all. Tuesday Pizza = goodness

It's all a blur really. I find it hard to believe that the people I've known since diapers are about to go off to college and start new lives for themselves. I'm really happy. Happy to know that we all have the chance to make something of ourselves, and that we've made it this far in the first place. To the people that I care for the most I'd like to express my sincere gratitude. Without you, I'd be in shambles! To my good friends especially, thanks for being there. To my dearest Bebes, much love. We're nuts. Mama, I couldn't have made it this far without you. Shizam! Dad and Dave, thank you for your support and most of all, thanks for putting up with me. This life is an amazing one. I'm hoping for the best for the class of 2007, holla! Peace and Love.

Toni Langevin

These past four years have been amazing. I'm really going to miss it and I love you all dearly. I can't believe it's finally done but it has been a crazy ride. My gymnastics girls, you ladies are my whole world and I'd be lost without you. My own cheering section at meets, got to love it. Six Flags, Walgreen's, bonfires, mini golf, go karts, dinners, movies, and Captain Croc, you guys know who you are. You name it, we've done it and it was awesome. Mom, Dad, George, and Kevin, thanks for everything. I love you with all my heart. My family and friends, you have always been there for me through everything, the good, the bad and the ugly. It's the best and thank you. It will always be worth going the wrong way on a highway to get a frosty at Wendy's.

Jaclyn Lariviere

I finally believe what everyone's been telling me: senior year is the best. I've become so close and comfortable with all my amazing friends; I don't know where I'd be without you guys, and it's scary to think you won't be with me next year. So many great memories, the most unforgettable probably being the France trip. I love all our idiotic but hilarious inside jokes. Thanks for always being there to make me laugh so hard I can't breathe. I'll never forget my surprise birthday party, one of the best days of my life. Code names (Milked, Stevie); obsessions (Alias, Grey's, House, books); ranting about crazy teachers - it's been an interesting ride. Mom, Dad, and Kristyn - I can't thank you enough for putting up with me all these years. Thanks for always being there when I needed you. Love you all, I'll never forget you.

Katy Lather

Kate, K-sizzle

The past four years have just flown by! I heard that college is the best time in your life, but if that's true, I must have some amazing years to come. Tory, we've grown so close over the past four years and had so many good times like finding words that have nothing to do with pharmacy. To my Lost crew—it's been real—Thursday morning Lost talks with Jake and eating everything in sight with Ali. Study hall with Dan Siok and Toni was so "embarrassing". Narragansett, Wendy's stops with Melissa and Corey, Prom '06, the Webster and orch-dorks will never be forgotten. I couldn't have survived any of years without the advice and support of Mom, Dad and Dave. Thanks. High school has been amazing and I'm going to miss these years but there are plenty more things to look forward to and plenty more memories to make.

Alysa Leary

It's hard to describe just how amazing these past four years have been to me. The memories I have to take with me are priceless and I couldn't have made any of them without my friends. Amanda, my heterosexual life partner (haha) thank you for always being such a great best friend, love you! Anna, Joanna, Vanessa, Brit, Sierra, you girls are my closest friends, my laughter, my love, and my life, I love you! Chels, Mere, Nix, Katelyn, thank you girls. To all of my guy friends, thank you for always being there for me and making everything so much fun. Linds Dickison, love you girl! Alicia, thank you hunnie! For everyone I love that has already graduated, you will always hold a special place in my heart, thank you. To my family, I owe you so much, thank you for always being there and helping me through whatever came my way. Especially to my sister Katie, "Sister, Sister, keep me" I love you so much sissy! I could never forget how wonderful these years were or the people who helped make them that way. Seniors 2007!

Elizabeth McCulloch

Liz, Lizzy

First of all I would like to say thank you to my parents and my sister for supporting me not only these four years, but for my entire life. Now I pass the torch to you Catherine, and I hope that you have even more fun than I did in high school. I would also like to thank Megan, Ashley, Kayla, Laura, Sara, Jen and everyone else who helped make my high school experience enjoyable for putting up with me. At times I felt like tearing my hair out stressing about midterms, SATs, projects and other everyday things but I made it! But there were also the fun times as well as the bad, a particular incident in a class or some such thing, and even something that I was embarrassed about at the time can become a hilarious story after enough years have passed. Preferably many, many years. In short, I am very blessed. So thank you again everyone, I love you all.

Andy McDowell

I woke up this morning a senior, an adult, and it was one of the most shocking things I could ever imagine. Mom you have always been there for me with a smile on your face, you helped me keep life in perspective and for that I am forever grateful. To the greasers (Mike, Jonny, Jake, Matt)- we have been through thick and thin, but we always came out laughing and I love you guys. I will never forget the Latin projects, or at least the ones I can remember. To all my dodgeballers, you played like champions. Jimmy you were always positive and always there when I needed you. Jake, Maya and Kristin, some of the best memories I have are hanging at 4-H or bonfires with you. Sierra, Vanessa, Justin, and Alysya, good times indeed. Kat you will always be one of my best friends and your just freakin awesome. To the class of 07, keep livin the dream and pz out.

These past four years have gone by so fast. Friends, you’ve been everything to me. The Cookie Club in particular, Chris, Grant, Kedzie, and the girls. Fourth Period Study with our Denny’s breakfasts and birthday celebrations. Our Mondays are amazing. Riding in the Dinosaur, Friendly’s runs, off roading with the boys, and late night drives with Jason, Jacquie, Jordy, and TJ. As I look back on my years at South Windsor High, I think of all the good times my friends and I have had. I met so many new people, a lot of who I’m good friends with now. My favorite thing to do was kick around my hackysac in the hallways, and outside my senior year. Ian! You’re my best friend. Even though you’re gone, I’ll always think of you as my older brother. You taught me so much about life and introduced me to so many new things, especially my music interests. Good times at the greatest concerts. Kosse, you’re my right hand man, you always have my back and I got yours bro. I’ll never forget our senior year, good times EVERYDAY after school. I’ll never forget all the crazy parties I went to. To all the teachers that have put up with me...thank you, I appreciate it. I would like to give a special thanks to Mrs. Moreno, you are one of the nicest and best teachers I have ever met. To anyone else, I’m sorry I didn’t say your name, so this last sentence is dedicated to you. Thanks for everything to everyone, you know who you are, thanks guys. “ I live for the nights I won’t remember, with the friends I’ll never forget.”

The past four years have gone by so quick. Great times at J-Groths, Barrs, P-Moneys, Burnhams, the lake house, skiing with Glassman at Mt. Snow, wherever. Ski trips up to Sunapee, parties, basketball, baseball, and golf. I can not forget all the wins over Rockville in the varsity sports, hearing the cheer of the South Windsor Bobcat community. Thanks to Dan, Pat, Jason, Taylor, Steve, Shane, Mike, Tom, Danielle, Nikki, Anna, Alysya, Ant, Gitt, Schell, Sarah, Laura, Clark, all good times and many more to come in our future. I would also like to thank my Mom and Dad, thanks for everything. I love you so much.

Danielle Parker

Well what can I say. These past four years have been interesting, but super for the most part. Friendships were made and destroyed, yet my true friends know who they are. So many different things have happened over these past four years and I have grown up a lot from it, even if it was a negative experience. Being at South Windsor High School for the past four years is an experience that I will never forget. These are supposed to be the best years of your life, when for me the majority of high school was a bunch of drama. But I don’t want to dwell on the negative. High School is something I will never forget. Good job class of 2007. Mission Accomplished ladies and gentlemen!

Ashkar Patel

“These four years are never going to go by”, I thought to myself three years ago. Now that I think about it though, the past four years have gone by at the speed of noise. I remember walking in the shadows of seniors, now I’m the one that’s making the shadows. I can truly say I have grown up, thanks to my friends and family, my parents, especially have put up with quite a bit of my shenanigans, letting me work out my own problems with some guide, at times it had felt like I was Jim from American Pie, but I know its all love. Rajan, Anil, Ankit and Adi, “bad boys till the end”. Cannot! Forget about my brownies, Talha, Rafay, Krishna, Vidhi, Amrita, Rachna, Nowreen, Fatima, and Doug. By the way, everyone forgets the teachers, I’d like to thank Mr. Stead, Mr. Longo, Mrs. Babiec, Mr. Bojarski, Mrs. Begley, Mrs. Blanc for not only teaching, but making sure that their students learn, and especially the teacher that has found a way to amalgamate both education and hilarity, Mr. St Jean. All in all thanks S.W.H.S.

Janelle Patterson

This had been an interesting four years of high school. I could never forget all the concerts and plays I've been involved in. These past four years have been absolutely amazing. Prom '06- from the marshmallows and bon fire to that one "incident" at laser tag, and the water, oh the water-fun times. The Washington D.C./Virginia trip last year was a trip to remember. The phone calls, the room party, and just walking around Washington D.C., was unforgettable. Tubing needs to become a tradition. The parties-surprise ones and random ones, it was impossible not to have fun. My chem. table was the best chem. table ever, what would we have done without each other? Everyone in orchestra (*The Violas*) I love you guys! Shannon- my bus buddy forever. Sarah S.- what am I going to do without you? Our "plans" were the best! To all of my other friends our time together was well worth it. Mom, Dad, and Leanne - Thank you for always being there for me. I couldn't ask for more.

Christine Rogers

You are truly an amazing friend, love you. To the others, you know who you are, thank you for the remarkable memories, it's been great. To the Class of '07, "Today's the first day of the rest of our lives"

There have been so many great memories- prom, games in study hall, sleepovers, field trips, Relay for Life, "movie" nights, marching band, the Virginia Trip, Model UN, student council, and so much more. Thank you to my family for always being there for me, my SPF-ers for becoming my second "family", Susan, Julianne, and Stephanie for being my "sisters", Dan for putting up with me when I was always late, Elise for always being willing to go "Arg, swash, swash, buckle, buckle," Dave for being my silent lover, and Alex for always listening to me, even when all I did was whine. Most importantly, thank you to everybody who made me laugh (and tee hee) every single day-I couldn't have made it without you.

Nikki Ryan

Ryan Safner

Wow, it's simultaneously amazing and scary that High School is almost over. It's been a great four years and I've met a lot of great people. I've made a lot of new and sometimes unexpected friends. For the sake of time, space, and the risk of leaving anyone out, I shall not begin a major list of friends/inside jokes. To all of my friends, we've had great times, and I'll miss you all once this is over, and I hope we can still keep in touch. I'd like to thank all of my friends, my family, and of course the Almighty for supporting me throughout High School. Best of luck to everyone, including those who I did not get to know; may fortune smile on you all. Despite my restraint, I will make this "inside" reference: to those who have supported me, if all goes well, 2034 will be a great year for you, and especially me.

Christine Salvati

Although I am sad to go, it is great to have so good memories of all my friends here. Lunch and study halls over the years were such a blast because of all the funny conversations we had. Six Flags, Aerosmith, and just hangin out. To my drawing buddies in Fable's class, CAPTURE THE ESSENCE! Sam, you have been with me since we were born. Who else would wait for me while I put on my makeup in the girls bathroom every morning? Thanks for being there for me. I love my Sam. I'd also like to thank Gregg, who was always there to put a smile on my face and joy in my heart. Thank you for loving me for my weird self. MUAH. I'd also like to say thank you to my parents, for always supporting me, and giving me a push when needed.

Andy, you were right there too. Thanks for all the times, good and bad. Sarah, I know we were very off and on with our friendship, but I think we're leaving it on the right note. "Here's to the nights I can't remember with the friends I'll never forget." These past four years have gone by so fast and it's hard to believe that it's almost over. I've experienced so many things that I would have never thought I would have experienced in high school. I don't need to name every name that has helped in some way but I do want to thank you all for everything. You know who you are. Katherine, we have had some good times the past seven years and I won't forget them. Mom and George, thank you for all the help you have given me. Shelley, you are my best friend and I can't thank you enough for being there for me.

Kelli Shields

Katherine Simao

Kat

These four years went by so fast I just can't believe it. I hope this isn't good bye to my closest friends but more of a good luck and we'll see each other soon. Allison I don't think you realize how valuable your friendship is to me. To the crew - I love you guys. Robotics Team, you've been like a family to me and there has never been a dull moment. Marching Band, these past four years I can't even explain how much the parties, trips and band camp under the hot sun have meant to me. And finally to the 954 ladies - you've always been there for me and made me smile, thank you. I love you all and to the Class of '07 it's been a good ride...

Dan Siok

Wow, I'm graduating. I suppose this is the part where I thank everyone for everything they have ever done for me, but I'm too much of a jerk to do that. I've had so many memories over the past four years. Airsoft with the guys, the boat flipping over in the Connecticut River. So many near-death experiences... Ozzfest with Zack and Morelli, Audioslave, and of course, The Who. Nothing compares to Adam and I starting the clapping chant during "won't get fooled again." I wonder if I will ever stop counting the days since that concert. I wonder if I will ever live long enough to see the Boston Bruins win a Stanley cup. Or a game... that would be nice too. Mr. Colby's class, Lucas and Sebastian (I wonder what they are doing right now) My all time favorite memory, though: "If this rope breaks..."

Allie Sirrine

When I was a freshman, someone once told me that it would be senior year before I knew it. Here we are. It's weird an exciting, all at once. Everything that's happened to me so far has gotten me where I am today, with no regrets. All my friends - you know who you are. Thank you for sharing everything with me. Tory - you've become my sister. I wouldn't want anyone else right across the street from me. Steph, we have the greatest times, and I wouldn't trade a single one of them. Three musketeers, I love you girlies. Best friend's forever. Rockville game crew '06 - I'll never forget that night! Prom. The best lunch table ever - I love you giraffes. SW Softball girls, we're all family, and I love every one of you. I'll miss it. I saved the best for last - Mom, Dad, Justin and Liz. You guys will always be number one to me. Best of luck, Class of '07!

Christina Skouloudis

Tina

The past four years have been amazing. I've learned so much and experienced a lot. Justine, Breanna, Mary, Erin, Caylie and Ashley, making shirts and becoming The Seven Seductive Seniors was memorable. Justine my girl since the fourth grade, every year we've grown closer and closer together. So many memories and many more to come. You're my sister that god forgot to give me. You're my partner in crime. Sister thanks for the path you left me, without you I would have been lost. Jonathan where do I begin, we went threw mix signals, meeting each other after class, "someday", acquired head nods, and not talking but do me a favor and don't smile. I will always remember you<3. SWHS live with no regrets and capture every moment. Peaceeee.

All the times I have had at this school and the memories I have made with my friends are way too many to even count. Robbie and Cheslea, Friends since the beginning of time. Sleepovers, very posh, swerving, lays creamy ranch dip at 3 in the morning, good times. Sarah, Malorie, Jamie, Jess, my girls for life! So many crazy, random, awesome and loud nights with you guys that I can never forget. Billiards Pool house, other people's houses, the stares we get from other people for being too loud, loud music in the car, crunchy eggs, lava lyce, and "oh my god we're being stalked!" to The Crew, "Here's to the nights..." to all my friends without you guys I'm pretty sure I would be lost. To Mom, Dad, and Abby, thank you for being there for me and for the continuous support to be myself and to do my best. Love you all. Peace out.

Jon Solomon

It's my senior year. Wow, just yesterday I was a freshman. I'm still the same height but I've learned a lot. My parents were always there for me, whether it was staying up late to help me study, or to give me a few words of confidence when I needed it most. You guys gave me strength when I didn't have any, thank you for all your support. To my sister, I may not say it a lot but I love you. Thank you for always being there, even if I said you didn't need to be. I made a lot of friends over these last four years and a lot of good memories with them. Toni, you have become like a sister to me and I love you. I'll always remember the times we spent together and the talks we've had. No matter where we go to school, we'll always be friends. To all my friends, I want to thank you for the times we've had and I wish you all good luck.

Jared Spieker

Jspooks, Spieks

Four years I waited to get out of High School and now that I finally have the chance too, I don't feel like leaving. I just want to start by stating some of the good times I've had over the years. Soccer with the boys, stick wars, backyard football, random biking trips with Dgannon, air soft, Celtics with Kwild, Risk (Baaaam! Sami), Nantucket with Emoney ("You don't care"), mmHHHm, GP with Bob, Spanish with Terrell and all the boys, Rec Bball "where the true ballers play" (razorbacks with Papa Fleet 14-0) Senior year has been the best and I owe a lot of this to my girlfriend Stephanie who made it so amazing. So much has happened between us and there is still the future to come. I love you Bae. Mom, Dad and Lindsey I want to especially thank you, everything I've learned has come from you three. Goodbye Class of 07'

Andrew Staron

We entered high school each a kid,
So many things we did,
So many people we met
Hopefully we never forget.
The many flashbacks,
Of cross-country and track,
Of 728 days of progress,
Each one priceless,
And as they all fly by
The one thing I can't do is say "goodbye."
To Lauren, Christi, and Sara,
My buddies from this era,
Thanks for the laugh every time,
And for being my partners in crime.
Now we leave high school,
Each carrying some jewel,
Each now a woman or man,
But, hopefully we never forget where it began:
SWHS.

"No love, no friendship, can cross the path of our destiny without leaving a mark on it forever." To my mom, our favorite Queen song sums it all up for me. The truth is, you really are my best friend. To both my parents, thank you for all the support you've given me. To Stacey, I hope we continue our study of phagocytosis together and stay the dynamic duo forever. To Sarah, we've learned a lot together; like to never sled down the street or throw a bagel. And to Stacey, Sarah, and Irene I have two words; "kittie" and "bebe." To everyone else, you are the people and moments that have made these four years great; my other half Katy, the lost crew, lockout adventures, ska concerts, my driving buddy, cross country sleepovers/pasta parties, the indoor and outdoor trackies, Papa Gino Tuesday's, and adventures to the gym (so when's queen night?).

Stephanie Sturgis

I still can't believe how fast these past four years went by. There have been so many great memories: marching band, cross country, pole vault, and prom! The list goes on. My past four years here at South Windsor High School consist of many accomplishments, memories, and worthy experiences. I have both developed as a student, a friend, and a person in general. Numerous teachers have left behind many impressions that I will remember from my journey. From my first year here, when I felt like a little bug liable to be squished by the gigantic seniors or overwhelmed by the workload brought on by my teachers; to the glorious days of seniority at South Windsor High School. I've met new people, become a successful student, and laid down the foundation for my future. As for my teachers, guidance counselors, and other school faculty, I would like to thank all of them for their contribution to my experience here. Thank you to all!

Tim Wilkos

High School was most certainly an experience for me. All my friends, Dan, Hoover, Josh, Dana, Adam, Zack, Dozimek, Skins, H-Dog, Belcher. It was one heck of a couch building, airsoft playing, boat sinking experience. There were some fun times, some scary times, and some words said. We've done some stupid things, but I wouldn't do it with any other people. In the words of a great man, "If this rope breaks, I'd fall in."

Jennifer Wolff

Jenny, J-Whoa, Jewnny

Four years have gone by, but the memories will last a lifetime. Fun times with friends and a ton of memories... Prom '06, Water breaks in English-when one leaves, we all do, abusive cat, Pita, Club MPMS-donations accepted, Spectacular Seniors-"place slogan here," Kristin Abcd..., funfetti cookies, p-j, piano skills, hermit crabs, movie nights, the puppy dog, dartboards, guidance breaks, driver's ed, statistics, sarcasm, tutoring fun, Every 15 Minutes-bananas, DD's, pizza parties, secret knocks, decorating Hankard's bike. Sarah, Allie, Laura, Danielle, Hillary, Kristin, Elyse, Jon, Zack, Meredith, Vincent, Steve, Justin & many more-I love you all, thanks for everything! Mom, Dad, & Josh-Thank you for your support and patience. I love you! Farewell SWHS, thanks for the memories!

These past four years have been a blast. It seemed like every year flew by faster than the one before it. Kaps, from prom, the beach house, mattress sliding, playing "hide and seek" with the guys and fighting over my mom's rice, the good times never seem to end. All I can say is, "AHHH". House, I don't know about you big guy- set her up, set them up, up set her. You two have always been there for me, and I can't ask for more. The rest of the boys, Fluet, Widdy, Gold, Crunch, Bry, Braulter, Burnham and the Grizz, I don't know what I would do without you guys. There have been so many memories, and more soon to come. Mom and Dad, thanks for pushing me to the edge and being there for me every step of the way. Derek, keep your head up, and good luck throughout high school. Congratulations everybody, keep in touch.

Laura Wyatt

Honestly, I'm very lucky I moved here. I don't know how I survived in NY without all you fabulous people. To my friends, I love you so much and I don't know what I'm going to do without you in college. You are some of the best people out there. You mean so much to me, and I'll never forget you and the times we've had (like PROM). All our inside jokes and crazy times made high school worthwhile. Court and Shann, you're my bestest, forever and always. I don't think I'll ever any friends who are as amazing as you. Thanks for always being there for me when I needed you, and for making me laugh no matter what. To Mr. Frank & Ms. Muldoon: you're two of the best teachers I've ever had, and I will never forget what you've taught me. Soccer Ladies, state champs at heart, I'll miss you. Well, it's been a heck of a ride. Congratulations 2007!

I love you. Next, is the best person I know, Megan. I love you so much we will always be best friends no matter how far away we are from each other. Ashley, what can I say, I love you. Michelle you're awesome and it's good to have a friend like you. To my guys: Drew, Dan, Colin, Kosse, and Ian. You are awesome and I am so happy you were there to make my years here so much better. Hanging out after school, in my basement every day. Good times! So this is it ... It's finally over, and good luck to everyone on their new beginning. Peace and Love.

Justin LeConche

Caring, funny, integrity, talented, compassionate, respectful, passionate, and considerate. People spend a lifetime growing into just one of those traits - Justin, you already encompass these and more. Your personality is infectious, drawing people to you regardless of gender, age, or social status. You accept others for who they are and not what they have. In an instant you can easily move a conversation from a friend to an adult to a young child, giving each your attention and making all feel special. When others choose complacency, you do not - you question; you stand up; you understand there are times when you have to give up what you love for what you believe in. Mom and I never tire of the complimentary stories told by your friends and their parents. You have the ability to make people feel better, even on their worse day. Your loyalty to your friends is beyond your years, your concern for others is unmatched and your strength of character provides natural leadership; and you do all this with a sense of humor and humility. You are our love and joy,
Mom, Dad & John

Markie Maypo,
Where has the time gone? 18 years seems like a long time but it goes very quickly. It seems like yesterday you were just learning how to ride a bike and now you are graduating. Having you for a son has been the best kind of adventure a parent could ever hope for. When you were small I used to wonder what you would grow up to be - and what you are is exactly what I'd hoped for - a thoughtful and good hearted son. Even though poppy is not here for your graduation, I know he is looking down on you and saying, "That's my grandson!"

My favorite celebrities:

- ▼ Fans mourn Steve Irwin, the Crocodile Hunter, who is killed by a stingray while snorkeling at Australia's Great Barrier Reef.

Crocodile hunter

- Due to the popularity of user-generated websites like MySpace and YouTube, TIME magazine's annual person of the year is "You."

- Jessica Simpson's divorce from Nick Lachey is finalized. Romantic rumors link her to skateboarder Bam Margera, NFL quarterback Tony Romo, singer John Mayer and comedian Dane Cook.

- Katie Couric is the anchor of the CBS Evening News, becoming the nation's first female solo anchor of a major television network's weekday evening newscast.

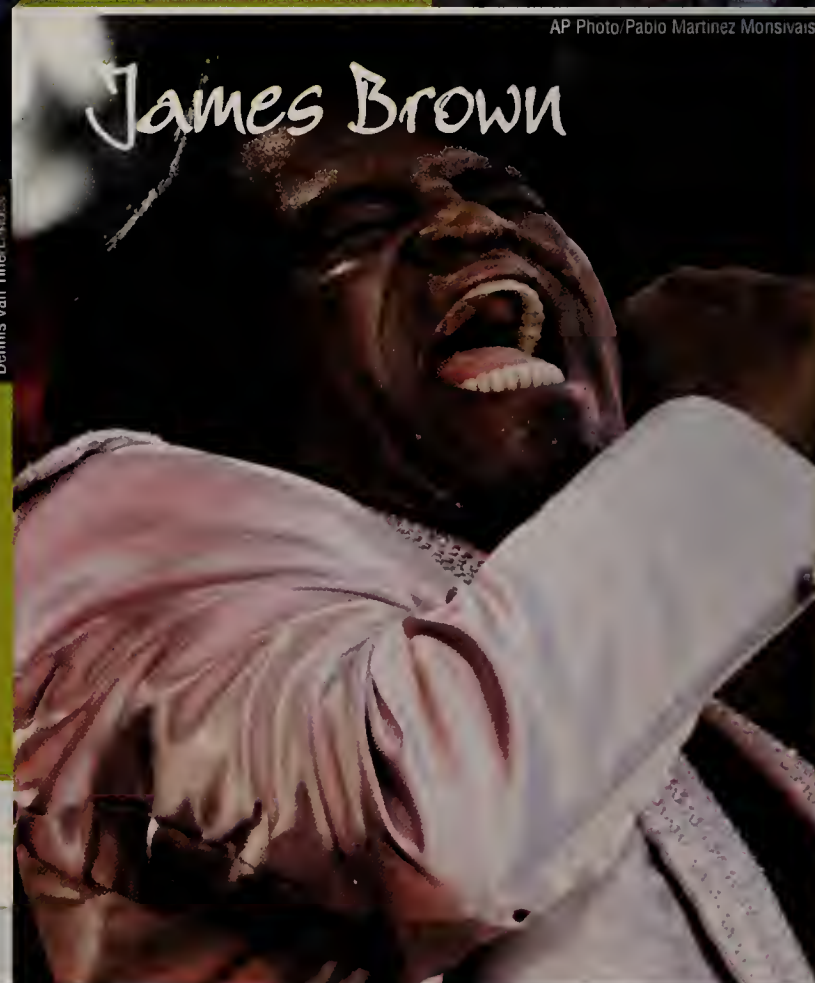

- Shortly after the birth of their second son makes headlines around the world, Britney Spears and Kevin Federline announce the end of their marriage.

- Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie, also known as "Bradgelina," make headlines when Angelina gives birth to daughter Shiloh in the African nation of Namibia.

James Brown

- Dynamic music legend James Brown, aka the Godfather of Soul, dies at the age of 73. He is remembered as one of the major musical influences of the past 50 years.
